Everyone in the Office of the Superintendent and across the Archdiocese of New York shares in the deep sense of loss felt by the Kennedy Catholic School community upon the tragic passing of Sister Barbara Heil, who was involved in a car accident on Friday, March 4. We join in prayer for her and for her family, as we do for the recovery of Sister Marie Murphy, who was critically injured in the crash as well.

Sister Barbara shared 50 years worth of service and faith with thousands of Kennedy Catholic students and families. Her is irreplaceable, but it is one that will carry on in the lives of those she inspired and enriched with her faith in God and her joy in sharing our history, from the very first years of Kennedy Catholic.

Our prayers go out to Sister Barbara Heil, Sister Marie Murphy and to the Sisters of the Divine Compassion in White Plains. We are blessed to have been touched by the lives of both Sister Barbara and Sister Marie.

Timothy J. McNiff, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools
